OCT. 12 DATE SET FOR NEEDLEWORK GUILD EXHIBIT

Articles Contributed To Be Displayed At Gallie Parish House at 2:00 p.m.

The Virginia Beach Branch of the Needlework Guild of America is calling upon all members to make their contribution to the Fall Ingathering which will be held on Thursday, October 12, at the Gallie Parish house. The exhibit will be opened to the public at 2 p.m., and it is hoped that a large collection of new articles will be donated. The Infant Sanitarium is Virginia Beach's own project and the bulk of articles contributed will be given to that institution for use next Summer when the sanitarium will again be open. Mrs. Basil Manly is the newly elected president of the Virginia Beach Branch, Mrs. Rufus Parks is treasurer, Miss Julia DeWitt, secretary and Mrs. E. M. Hardy, corresponding secretary. Membership in the organization constitutes the gift of a minimum of two new articles of household linen, garments or money, any amount, once a year. By these donations members have the privilege of helping to give a baby a right start or restoring the self-respect of some boy or girl or lifting the morale of some older person. Needy cases in the county will be taken care of through the public health service or upon recommendation of school principals.

Mrs. Manly urges all members and interested friends to have their contributions ready when approached that Virginia Beach may have its usual splendid report to make to the National Committee of the Needlework Guild of America, October 12, 1944. Gallie Parish House.

New Polio Victim In Princess Anne; Decline Continues

Richmond.—One case of poliomyelitis was reported to the Bureau of Communicable Diseases last week but one case was dropped from the official report leaving the State total since June 1 at the 589 mark, reached Thursday.

The single additional patient listed was a five-year-old boy from Princess Anne County.

One case of infantile paralysis has been reported to the bureau daily since the outbreak in June. The outbreak began to subside by September 15 and has steadily decreased for the past 10 days.

Land Leased In Princess Anne By Large Oil Co.'s

The "oil agitation" in this section is apparently no new story according to a Norfolk reporter who came to Norfolk in 1907 to assist in the organization of the Tidewater Oil Company formed for the purpose of attempting to locate oil in this section. So far in this recent rush there has been no drilling in Princess Anne County though the Gulf Oil Corporation has taken leases for oil and gas rights on thousands of acres in Princess Anne County.

Many leases already have been signed, and it was indicated Gulf would acquire rights on 5,000 to 15,000 acres before beginning drilling operations.

Research experts of the corporation were said to have selected the Princess Anne area as one of those offering good prospects in "explorations being made in the search for new oil structures." It is understood that a thorough test of the area will be made by drilling deep wells in the hope of finding oil or gas.

Heavy demands for oil for war purposes are rapidly depleting the available reserves, causing many of the large companies to seek new fields, according to recent reports in the industry, and oil has been found in the last few years in several Southern States in which none had been sought before.

Free Smokes Sent Overseas

Through the medium of one of the large tobacco companies the hotels, business people, police and fire departments of Virginia Beach recently sent more free smokes to our boys fighting overseas than any other town in the United States of its population. The smallest shipment amounted to $51.30. These smokes are packed in asphalt cases by the tobacco company and sent to the War Department which in turn ships to the Special Service Officer of War and Navy Departments who will supervise the free distribution of the smokes to our boys in the different branches of the armed forces overseas. A label is affixed to the top of each individual package bearing a personal message of encouragement to the recipient, giving the name of the donor.

This material expression of encouragement from the people back home does a great deal to bolster the morale and add to the comfort of our men on the fighting front.

Wm. P. Dickson Dies Following Long Illness

William Pettie Dickinson, 58, well known business man of Norfolk and Virginia Beach, died Wednesday, Sept. 27 in a Norfolk hospital following a long illness.

He was a native of Norfolk and a lifelong resident of this section, making his home at Thirty-sixth street and Holly Road, Virginia Beach, at the time of his death.

Mr. Dickinson was a member of Christ and St. Luke's Church. He was the son of the late William C. and Mrs. Mary Pettie Dickinson. Surviving him are his wife, Mrs. Nellie Talbot Dickinson; a daughter, Miss Anne Talbot Dickinson; two sons, Lieut. William P. Dickinson, Jr., USN, and Lieut. Charles T. Dickinson, USAAC; and a sister, Mrs. Henry Alan Johnston, of New York.

Funeral services were held at Christ and St. Luke's church on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, with the Rev. Stiles B. Lines, rector of Gallie Episcopal Church, Virginia Beach, officiating. Burial was in Elmwood Cemetery. Pallbearers were Rufus Parks, Richard D. Cooke, R. Lee Page, C. L. Talbot, Littleton W. Tazewell, F. S. Royster, Arthur P. Jones, John D. Gordon and William P. Talbot.

Fort Story Men Included In Picnic

The bi-weekly picnics for convalescent service men conducted by the City Recreation Bureau were expanded Sunday afternoon by the addition of soldiers from the Fort Story Convalescent Center, W. R. Hainsworth, superintendent, stated today.

The picnics have been held through the Summer for convalescent men at the Norfolk Naval Operating Base Hospital and usually are attended by from 15 to 20 men and a like number of Norfolk girls. The number Sunday possibly will be doubled.

Mrs. Helen Barrett, of the recreation bureau, is in charge of the event. Transportation is furnished by the Norfolk Chapter American Red Cross. A Red Cross recreation worker from the Naval Base hospital also assists. The food and the girls are furnished by the recreation bureau.

Those attending the picnics play baseball and pitch horseshoes, sing, cook and eat.

The Gulf experts, in looking over the Princess Anne Currituck section as one offering reasonable possibilities, it was said. Leases were reported signed yesterday and today on more than 1,900 acres south of Kempsville and in Blackwater district.

Fire Prevention Week Oct. 8-14

The president has proclaimed October 8-14 as Fire Prevention Week. Once again the signal has been given for a renewed offensive against our remorseless enemy, uncontrolled fire. Despite the ceaseless efforts of fire prevention authorities, fire losses have doubled in nine years, reaching a total for the past year of more than $400,000,000.

In an appeal to the American people in commemoration of fire prevention week, W. E. Mallahan, general manager of the national board of fire underwriters, says: "If America's wartime fire waste is to be reduced it will be necessary for every interested person to cooperate in a campaign to spread information about fire dangers. Fire losses increase because most people are not sufficiently interested, and they are not interested because they have not been informed adequately as to the seriousness of losses and hazards. Citizens who do appreciate, can perform a patriotic job by transmitting information to others and convincing them of the need for special efforts to reduce fire waste. To be specific, begin in your own home by locating all fire dangers there and eliminating them. Branching out from there, tell your neighbors about fire safety and get them to clear all fire dangers from their premises. Then contact fire prevention headquarters in your community and offer your services. Finally, make an effort to promote fire safety in your business. If nothing is done there, be the one to initiate a safety program, for it is patriotic to save materials."

Let's all include fire prevention with our daily work, not just for a week or a month, but throughout the year—and let's start now. An interesting program has been planned which includes a movie of "Historical Views of Virginia." All patrons are urged to attend. There will be $10 awarded to the room that has the most parents present.

The officers for the year are as follows: President, Mrs. D. L. Davis; vice-president, Mrs. Norman Fyfe; secretary, Miss Mildred Snidow; treasurer, Mrs. George Buzzer; membership chairman, Mrs. John Fiske; finance chairman, Mrs. Truethold; welfare chairman, Mrs. Richard Humphries; library chairman, Miss Mildred Snidow; ground and athletics chairman, Mrs. Myers; publicity chairman, Mrs. Dean Lockwood; hospitality chairman, Mrs. Elsie Hunsinger; program committee, Mrs. Barlow, Mr. Spruill; devotional committee, Mr. C. C. Perry, Mr. E. L. Smith; lunchroom assistant, Miss Helen Ashworth; luncheon room, Mrs. Norman Fyfe.

4-HERS TO ASSIST IN FIRE PREVENTION WEEK, OCT. 8-14
Four-H Club boys and girls are encouraged to take part in Fire Prevention Week, Oct. 8-14, to help reduce the annual loss of 3,500 lives and $100,000,000 worth of property in fires on American farms. More than 85 per cent of these fires were preventable, according to authorities.

Many of the rural youth in this state are enrolled in the Mennen 4-H Farm Safety Activity, one objective of which is to have participants check and remove fire hazards on their own and neighboring farms. During Fire Prevention Week, the 4-Hers may make an end of the year survey to help eliminate every possible hazard as a protection to farm families and properties. Meritorious work in this activity will be recognized on county, state, sectional and national levels with medals, war bonds, national 4-H Club Congress trips, and $200 college scholarships, respectively. A plaque also will be presented to the county reporting the most outstanding 4-H farm safety program in 1944.

School Children Needed
"It is becoming increasingly difficult to find men to fight forest fires and unless arrangements can be made to organize fire fighting crews in rural high schools, destructive forest fires may occur." It was stated by George W. Dean, state forester, in a letter addressed to high school principals who cooperated last year by training and certifying high school boys to prevent and suppress forest fires.

Prior to the 1944 Spring fire season, 4,663 high school boys received training in the fundamentals of forest fire prevention and suppression, and joined the Forest Fire Fighters Service, an organization sponsored by the Office of Civilian Defense.

This year, FFFS trainees are urged to learn the forest fire prevention rules and to take the following pledge:
1. By learning the "Forest Fire Prevention Rules."
2. By observing these rules, so that I may never be responsible for a forest fire.
3. By suggesting to my neighbor:

Chaplain Meacham recently returned from the South Pacific, will be the guest speaker at the Womens Club of Princess Anne County at their birthday luncheon, Tuesday, Oct. 10, 1944 at 12:30 at the Pocomantas Hotel. An interesting meeting has been planned and all members are urged to attend. Reservations must be made by Friday, October 5th.

German Prisoners Here Not Coddled Officer Tells

German prisoners at Camp Kempsville are treated well, but there is no coddling, Lt. Col. A. E. Fisher, U. S. A., commanding officer, declared in an address before the Norfolk Lions Club.

Col. Fisher said there were two groups, the Nazis and the anti-Nazis, with the former being very arrogant. He explained the Nazis were younger men and this group did not believe Germany was going to be defeated. The anti-Nazis were much more easily handled, the speaker said.

After his address, Colonel Fisher answered a barrage of questions, estimating that out of 10,000 prisoners in a recent batch were professed Nazis. He stated that every prisoner had to be examined and explained that the capacity of the camp was 1,300 prisoners.

Prisoners receive their mail regularly as foreign service men, but all mail, including outgoing is censored. Asked how he was in most of the packages received by the prisoners, the commanding officer said, "I'm bread, and how they eat it, don't know."

SOLD THOSE BONDS!

The Treasury Department has made it possible to cash in War Bonds after October 2. This new system was organized solely as a convenience for those who of a necessity must have cash. The government does not want bonds
cashed and for every bond cashed
or some fellow citizen must purchase another. Holding a bond is the most patriotic and safest way to hold interest earning money for any future need.
These bonds will be as negotiable
as a government check later on.
Another bond drive is on its way
and it will be necessary to continue the war financing program
for a considerable time even after victory in the Pacific. Our boys will not return home immediately after peace and they must still be financed until their work
is finished.

Put all possible savings into war bonds and hold onto those bonds as long as possible.

STREET CORNER PROPHECIES

The desire to appear smarter or better informed than we really are seems to be inherent to some degree in all of us.
Ask any man, no matter how unfamiliar he may be with the facts, who is going to win the election and he'll be glad to tell
you. Ask him when the war is going to end and he'll be happy
to give you an opinion on that.
In most cases when we make predictions on such complicated
problems as these we are guessing
in the dark, stimulated by a sort of mental giddiness over the self-satisfaction we will get from having our predictions come true.
But it seems a harmless pastime. We are always glad to listen to any man on the street tell us
when the war will end even if Himmler himself doesn't know
the true answer.

FULWOOD PACKS GI XMAS GIFTS

The volume of Christmas packages going overseas to men and women in the armed services will reach a new high this Fall, according to the Office of War Information.
In 1948 the Army Post Office
transmitted more than 20,000,000
holiday packages and an additional 15,000,000 to one hundred million pieces of miscellaneous
mail. This year, Army postal authorities say, the Christmas mail
volume will be more than double
that of last year.

Fulwood has made it possible
for those of us at home to keep in touch with loved ones overseas whether by V-mail, regular mail, or by cartons of home-made
or home-grown foods.

These packages and letters
made from Fulwood have also gone into prisoners' camps in Germany and Japan via the Red Cross. Already this year's Christmas packages are being prepared by the Red Cross. They will contain turkey, plum pudding, sausage, butter, dried ham, Cheddar cheese, bouillon cubes, tea,
honey, strawberry jam, candy
sauce, salted nuts, fruit bars,
chips, sliced pineapple, chewing gum, playing cards, cigarettes,
smoking tobacco, paper, a game,
washcloth and a picture to hang

on a barrack wall.
Pulpwood cutters and producers may be proud of the part they have played in making the lot of our fighting men and women auxiliaries a little easier.
Mail your Christmas package
overseas early this year and cut
all the pulpwood you can so long as the war lasts.

As Others See It

NEWSPAPERS DON'T USE WAR
AS AN EXCUSE FOR
SHODDY SERVICE

By Charles Fisher
Republished from The Philadelphia Record.

If you've been reading the papers during the last week, you may understand something of
why newspapermen get more impatient than most people when they hear the war is being fought for every kind of shoddy service and cut in quality. The invasion put a heavy strain upon the press—
heavier, perhaps, than the strains
most civilian businesses know—
but no reader found his paper a sloppy, uncraftsmanship job to be excused under the aegis, swivel-jointed query: "Don't you know
there's a war on?"

Newspapers suffer from all the handicaps: Shortages of men and materials and increases in the price of essential supplies.
They do not, however, take it for granted that the subscribers
should be satisfied with a jerr-
built product, hap-hazardly circulated, offered with covert insincerity, sliding by on a minimum of service, shaved down to the shabbiest quality the law allows.

We suggest that there are very few enterprises in civilian life of which you can say as much. Consider the things you buy and the services for which you pay: You know that clothes are going to cost more and be worth less; that shirts, pajamas, underwear and ties are going to grow more flimsy
as their prices rise. You don't expect your laundry back until it turns up. You are certain many restaurants will regard your custom as half imposition on your part, half favor on theirs. You take it for granted that your house will be hastily painted with inferior paint, that the very shine
on your shoes won't last until summer time.

If you are a well-meaning civilian, you don't protest too much.
You are aware that you are expected to sacrifice a great deal of convenience during a war. You understand that every trade has serious problems. You don't want to fall into the unattractive attitude of insisting that your own life be untouched. But it is hard to get away from a suspicion that a great many firms and organizations are going to be squeezing the war situation for just a shade more than the ordinary exigencies of the times indicate. The moment
you step outside the letter of OPA
requirements or enter a field
where the OPA doesn't operate
you begin to think of the ugly
word: profiteer.

Every firm has a complete list of excuses, of course. But again
we come back to our business and the fact that a newspaper today
maintains a tone, a level of quality, which isn't very different from that of the prewar period.
They carry fewer pages, of course;
the quantity of newsprint which may be used has been restricted
by government order. To that degree—and in the absence of such things as rubber rollers for presses
and toner for the ink—they've suffered as much as any other civilian industry. But through rearrangement and condensation of minor news stories; through small details like the dropping of extra caption lines from photographs
and the moving of news type
farther toward the top of each page,
through decreased size of advertisements, the papers have pretty well compensated for the paper cut.

In the field of making adjustments for manpower shortages
newspapers run into exceptional complications. They employ all manner of skilled and unskilled labor. Truck drivers, editorial writers, printers, clerks, reporters, desk men, editors, janitors
and a score of other kinds of workers aid in the making of a paper. Every department is short-handed because of the war. Every department could excuse incompetence on the ground that there aren't enough men available.

And on top of this is the increased pressure put upon a newspaper by the war. News is at its greatest volume in the history of the press. It must be fielded swiftly and printed accurately on ordinary days. During times like

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKim

Four stars to Margery Sharp for her creation of one of the most unique and lovable heroines of the year—Miss Cluny Brown, who appears in her novel, "Cluny Brown," a Book-of-the-Month Club
selection for September.

Cluny Brown is the niece of a London
plumber, and people are always saying of her, "She doesn't know her place," and saying to her, "Who do you think you are,
Cluny Brown?"

What does she do that's so outrageous?
Well, for one thing she goes to the Ritz
for tea. Imagine, a plumber's niece going to the Ritz. It just isn't done. But Cluny saved up two-and-a-tanner and went, all
on her own, just to see what it was like.

What Cluny needs is tanning down, her Uncle Arn decides, and he arranges for her
to go into service as a parlormaid at Friars in Devon. That ought to settle her, he thinks. But it doesn't.

She has never lived in the country before, and it is a source of endless delights to her. One day, after she has played truant, for two hours, simply to look at lambs, Mrs. Maile, the housekeeper, decides it's time to give her a dressing down. She does this exceptionally well; generations of maids had been reduced to tears in an average of five minutes, and to penitence in ten. Grinly,
she allots Cluny fifteen. "Who do you think you are?" she begins, which is a mistake, because that remark immediately sets Cluny off to think of all the train of events that had brought her there. When she has finished, she asks the girl, "Well, what have you to say for yourself?"

"I do wish Uncle Arn were here," sighs Cluny. "Why do you say that?" the housekeeper asks, more gently now. "I would like him to see the lambs," comments Cluny. After that, Mrs. Maile gives up.
Parlormaid really are very hard to find these days.

Margery Sharp, author of "Cluny Brown," "The Nutmeg Tree," and other novels, is English, though she was married in New York—to a doctor, Geoffrey Castle, now a captain in the British Army. The best man at the wedding was the actor, Robert Morley, who was playing currently in "Oscar Wilde," and also in the screen version of "Henry VIII."

One of the guests, arriving late, saw Morley standing on the church steps. He reminded her of some historical figure, but in the flurry of the moment she couldn't decide just which one. "Who is that man?"
she whispered to the first person she could reach. "Why, don't you know?" was the reply. "That's Oscar Wilde."
According to the story, the guest left hastily, presumably to puzzle out things in quiet.

WAR CROPS FROM MIDDLE AMERICA

QUININE OBTAINED FROM THE BARK OF cinchona (tree) trees, quinine is urgently needed today. Above is a four-year-old cinchona in bloom—mature enough for first light harvesting.

PRODUCING HIGH YIELDS: Middle
American farmers bud-graft high-yielding cinchona trees near the base
of young trees to increase quinine content of the bark. Cinchona start producing in four to five years and reach maximum yields in ten years.

QUININE IS MAN'S BEST PROVED DEFENSE AGAINST MALARIA

NATIVE TO THE AMERICAN TROPICS, and exported mainly from Middle and South America as late as 1880, quinine became, in the years following, a vital ingredient of the Dutch East Indies. Since Japan's Far East impulses, our imports of quinine have mounted to a considerable figure. Quinine, with Middle America is a substantial quinine as a durable crop. Guatemala, with 1,600,000 cinchona trees, has one of the world's most effective quinine-research centers. Costa Rica in 1943 granted 10,000 acres for U. S. Department of Agriculture to plant cinchona trees, the whole project to be turned back to Costa Rica in twenty-five years. Thus, the American can and will become independent of Far Eastern sources of this precious therapeutic.

Since water is practically incompressible, if an object is heavy enough to sink beneath the surface it will go all the way to the bottom, which in the ocean may be well over six miles.

CRAB REWARD

No crabs have been more cantankerous than usual and they have not, to our knowledge, committed either bigger or more misdeeds. However, a lot of crabs are being tagged at this time by a member of the Department's staff to study their migrations. If you catch one with a red tag on its back or with red and white tags on a spike, send the tag in right away. Keep the crab yourself, but tell us where and when you caught it. You will receive $1.00 reward and the thanks of the state.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"It sounds almost like a miracle, Judge...
how did we ever do it?"
"American industry did it, Sally. When the Japs conquered the chief natural rubber producing centers of the world they thought they had dealt a death blow to our effort. But, in less than two years, we are producing enough synthetic rubber in this country to supply all our military and essential civilian requirements."
"Our rubber experts knew how to make it but the most practical process at the time required huge amounts of industrial alcohol... far beyond the already overtaxed capacity of our industrial alcohol plants. So, overnight, our country's beverage distillers stopped making whiskey and produced hundreds of millions of gallons of the vitally needed alcohol."
"As a matter of fact, Sally, a high government official said recently '... synthetic rubber is from 6 to 9 months ahead of where it could have been if alcohol had not been available for bottling production.'"
"We were really fortunate, weren't we?
Judge, to have a beverage distilling industry
in existence... able to help perform this great wartime miracle!"

Theatre Prevues

"Summer Storm" starring Geo. Sanders, Linda Darnell, Anna Lee and Edward Everett Horton, will be seen at the Bayne Theater Friday and Saturday, October 6 and 7.

This is a stark, intensely dramatic story of a Russian girl whose beauty destroys the men whom she favors. Ruthless, fickle, ready for wealth and position, Linda Darnell, as Olga, gives a superb performance as an illiterate peasant girl who wrecks the lives of three other persons — and inevitably, her own.

Sunday and Monday Joyce Reynolds, Robert Hutton, Edward Arnold and Ann Harding will be co-starred in "Janie".

Adapted from the Broadway stage success of the same name, the film deals with the influx of Army troops into a typical American small town. Everything happens when the teenagers in the small community take it upon themselves to go into competition with the U. S. O. and, for many of the G. I. Joes, the situation must have struck a distinctly familiar note.

"Sweet and Low Down," with Benny Goodman, Linda Darnell, Lynn Bari and Jack Oakie, starred in the leading roles will be the feature attraction at the Bayne Theater Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. This is a 20th Century Fox new musical hit filled with music romance and dazzling new songs.

At the Roland on Friday and Saturday "Ghost Catchers" will be the offering. Olsen and Johnson, Leo Carillo, Andy Devine and Gloria Jean are starred in the leading roles.

Everything that goes to put creepiness into a "horror" picture has been included in the film, such as a haunted house, bodies in closets, a mummy, ghosts, gangsters and murderers.

Sunday and Monday "The Hitler Gang" the Goose-Stepping Gangsters will be seen. The story reveals the black history of the Nazi regime in all its ugliness. There will be a double feature on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. "Girl in the Case" starring Edmund Lowe, and Janis Carter and Smiley Burnette in "Beyond the Last Frontier."

Who put the body in the trunk? Who gagged the beautiful blonde? Who blackmailed the millionaire? Who loved the "Girl in the Case"?

You'll never guess whodunit. "The Last Frontier" is filled with dynamic Western thrills. Riotous rangeland comedy.

Health Notes

MENTAL DISORDERS

"The increasing number of mental cases represent not only a serious medical but a social problem also. Psychopathic hospitals are filled to capacity and in many of them there are waiting lists. High-speed living with its fast emotions and daily infractions of nature's laws, as well as avoidable infection, are taking an increasing and alarming toll. This problem, unfortunately, does not lend itself to mass prevention on the part of physicians and public health officials. Medical men can offer suggestions and advice, but the public alone can act upon them," states Dr. I. C. Riggins, commissioner of health.

"Syphilis is the cause of insanity in one of every twelve first admissions to mental hospitals. While paresis, due to the invasion of that organ by the syphilis germ is the cause of one in every fourteen admissions. Unless this malady is innocently acquired, this condition is preventable if proper moral conduct is observed. Moreover, early, effective, and continued treatment for the designated therapeutic period will block the tragic end results of general paralysis, even though syphilis infection has been established from whatever cause.

"As previously stated, however, improper living habits, leading to physical and mental breakdowns impair many brains. Consistent loss of the nightly needed sleep, an habitual reliance on excessive stimulants of any and all types, drug addiction of various kinds, and the constant overdriving of nervous energy, as well as an uncontrolled worry complex from whatever cause, can be and often are predisposing causes for mental casualties.

"Speaking in general terms, nature requires that her basic laws be reasonably observed at least. A constant contempt for this requirement takes its toll not only in wrecked bodies, but also in minds. Insanity, as well as lesser nervous disorders, could be reduced markedly were everyone to realize the folly of such an attitude and govern themselves accordingly."

THE STING

Jellyfish owe their sting to the countless little "trigger cells" which cover the trailing tentacles. When these triggers are touched the cells send out tiny, barbed whips and inject the victim with irritating formic acid. This stinging acts both as an offensive and a defensive weapon: offensive in catching fish and other marine animals for food, and defensive in protecting the jellyfish from its enemies.

tude and govern themselves accordingly."

Our thanks to a Country Editor

You get a pretty good view of the world from a small-town newspaper office. Sometimes you see things that other folks overlook. For instance, this frank statement by the editor of The Diarks (Arkansas) Banner:

The Banner is one of the last papers in the country to raise its subscription price. Many over the U. S. having done so a year or more ago. The cost of practically everything that goes into the production of a newspaper has advanced, except electricity used in running the machinery and lighting the plant. We're grateful to the editor for pointing out a fact more and more people are realizing—that at a time when most things are scarce and expensive, electricity is still plentiful and cheap.

That just goes to show what companies like ours can do for you by hard work and experience and sound business management.

For Vets — 16,000 Hospital Beds

Sixteen thousand additional veterans' hospital beds in buildings to be constructed in twenty states have been recommended by the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs. Under this largest building program ever requested by the Veterans' Administration, the new beds would be located in hospitals in New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Delaware, Virginia, Florida, Michigan, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi or Alabama, Kansas or Missouri, Montana or North Dakota, Colorado, California, Texas, Washington, New York, Georgia, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Illinois. Addition of these beds would bring the total of 121,000 available to veterans.

We are a little bit dubious about how the young things are going to appear in cotton hose.

ELIMINATE 3 HAZARDS IN FIRE PREVENTION

Blacksburg.—If Virginia farmers would get rid of fire hazards
which stem chiefly from carelessness they could practically wipe out fires on the farm, says Wilbur O'Byrne, extension forester at Virginia Polytechnic Institute.
Eliminating fire hazards means saving much that is valuable in
the way of crops, equipment,
buildings and the nation's most valuable asset—human life, he points out. During Fire Prevention Week which begins October 8, it is the farmer's duty to his nation and to his own loved ones
to gain a knowledge of the eight hazards and build defenses against them.

The hazards include defective
chimneys an dffues, accumulation of trash, lightning, spontaneous ignition, careless handling of matches and cigarettes, careless
use of gasoline and kerosene, defective and improperly installed
stoves and furnaces, and faulty wiring and misuse of electrical equipment.

Why take these hazards exist on your farm? You are responsible if carelessness causes fire to strike
and wipe out crops or equipment.

Butter Value Goes Up Four Points

Washington.—Reflecting short supply and spotty distribution, the rent value of creamery butter
went up four points Sunday to a new high of 26 points a pound.

This increase is the only point
change to be made in October, OPA announced. All other rationed foods — meats, other dairy products and processed foods —
retain their current values.

Hinting the record-high points
on butter may continue through December, OPA Administrator
Chester Bowles said.

"There are no two ways about
it, we civilians are going to have to get along with less butter than formerly—at least during the next 90 days or so. We simply don't have anywhere near the normal
supply of butter to distribute."

The government has ended its butter purchases for the year but OPA said production so far this year is about 12 per cent under that in the corresponding period
of 1943. July production of creamery butter was the lowest in 22 years, with output continuing to taper in August and this month. WPA reported. Production normally declines in the Fall
and begins to rise again in December.

Predicting that spotty distribution may continue to prevail during the next two months, Bowles
pointed out that many grocers already are limiting customers to a quarter or half pound of butter at a time.

The purpose of the new 26 point value, he said, is to build up the stocks in the trade so that "more people everywhere will be able to get some butter during the next month."

The hike does not apply to farm
or processed butter, which con-

BIRTH RATES ARE SHIFTING DOWNWARD

After an upward trend for the past seven years, Virginia's birth rate is declining. Births in the state for the first quarter of 1944
totalled 14,157 in comparison with 15,210 for the same period in 1943,
a reduction of seven per cent.

The birth rate in Virginia rose from 21.2 per 1,000 population in 1941, the previous year to 23.1 in 1942 and to 23.5 in 1943. From preliminary data, it appears that the rate in 1944 will be considerably lower than the rates for the past two years.

During World War I the birth rate for Virginia declined from 27.8 per 1,000 population in 1916
to 27.6 in 1917. However, during the second year of the war, 1918,
the rate rose to 28.5.

The true effect of the war upon the birth rate, however, cannot be determined, as the first world war
came during a period of rapidly
declining birth rates, while our entry into the present war took place during an upward swing in births.

in this capacity for about two years.

Major Bailey, a senior surgeon
of the U. S. Public Health Service, has been stationed at Mor-ganstown, W. Va., has been loaned by the U. S. P. H. S. to the state

gar until February 28, 1945. Apply to local boards for supplemental rations.

and 2 (book 3) valid indefinitely.

pons from last year and period 1

(Alabama, Tennessee and Mississippi not affected.)

Gasoline: A-11 coupons now valid in Georgia, Florida, the Carolinas and Virginia through November 8.

SHOES

All non-leather shoes with rubber soles will be removed from rationing September 25, the Office of Price Administration announced today.

Shoes containing leather remain on the rationed list whether or not they have rubber soles,
and no change is made in the regulation covering men's rubber
boots and rubber work shoes.

The action, however, is expected to mean an increase in shoes
with uppers of canvas or other fabric and soles of rubber.

GASOLINE

Six of the coupons in the new
"A" book, those number "A-13,"
became valid in areas outside the Eastern Seaboard on September 22 and remain valid until December 21. Although the motorist receives fewer coupons his "A" gasoline ration remains the same, for each coupon will be worth four gallons of gasoline.

Rationing rules now require that every car owner write his license number and state on all gasoline coupons, in his possession, as soon as they are issued
him by his rationing board.

The Office of Price Administration said today the prohibition
against acceptance of the offhighway "R" coupons at filling stations, in effect since April 1,
will be lifted September 22.

Beginning with that date all gasoline filling stations may again
accept the coupons in transfer for gasoline for non-highway use.

The ban on acceptance of the channels of transfer of "R" coupons to reduce their illegal use.
Before the ban was made national in Georgia and had been imposed to limit the coupons by many service stations
townwide the plan was tried out fully.

October Liquor Ration Halved

Richmond.—A 50 per cent reduction in the liquor ration for Virginia is being ordered for October because of a shortage of stocks the state Liquor Board announced last week. Officials expressed the hope that the shortage
would be only temporary.

The reduction of the ration
from four to two fifths, effective Monday, will affect domestic whisky, gin and brandy. No book will be required for Marimba rum
Aurora port and Ambrosia sherry.
Other ration-free items will remain so, but presentation of a ration book will be required.

During October only Coupon
No. 55 will be honored. One-half of the coupon will be required for a pint or a fifth of domestic whisky, gin or grape brandy, or a pint of imported whisky. The entire coupon will be required for a quart of whisky or gin.

Officials of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Board said they have sufficient stocks purchased
and on order, but have had difficulty in having it bottled and shipped, because of a shortage of bottles, labor at bottling plants,
and a delay by the Treasury Department in approving new spirit
blends planned by distillers following the distillers' "holidays"
during August.

Life, for little people, is a struggle to secure power.

Men's Club of Galilee Resume Meetings

The first regular monthly dinner meeting of the "Men's Club of Galilee Church" will be held at the Pinewood Hotel on Wednesday evening, October 18, at 7 p.m. In following the precedent established at last year's meetings the program committee has been very fortunate in securing as the speaker of the evening Mr. Donald W. Shriver, assistant city attorney of the city of Norfolk. Mr. Shriver is well known for his great interest in civic and religious affairs and for his ability as a public speaker. Mr. Shriver's message should be important and pertinent to the club's further endeavors.

Mr. A. C. Wood, president of the "Men's Club of Galilee Church," is in hope that all members will strive their utmost to be in attendance at this meeting and endeavor to bring a guest. Here is an opportunity to renew and continue the good fellowship established during the club's previous meetings and enjoy a pleasant dinner.

Guest Speaker At M. E. Church

Chaplain Sutfenfield of the United States Army will preach at the Virginia Beach M. E. Church on 18th Street Sunday morning, October 15 at 11 o'clock. The Rev. Long W. Meachum will conduct the evening worship at 8:00 p.m. A cordial invitation to attend these services is extended to all.

The score of 26 to 0. Coach Myers has been drilling his squad in preparation for this very important engagement this week. Oceana had the misfortune to lose the services of its co-captain, Jimmy Paxton, who was injured last week in the Morrison game. Tickets are now on sale among the students and the members of the team are asking that every student be out wearing a ticket and lending their support to this important game.

STATE WAR FUND DRIVE GETS UNDERWAY, OCT. 5-NOV. 1

To Combine With Community Fund To Raise Two and One-Half Million

Richmond—More than 60,000 people in every part of the world will benefit from the Virginia War Fund campaign to be conducted on a statewide basis from October 5 through November 1, Governor Colgate W. Darden has announced. A final breakdown of the quota assigned to Virginia was revealed by him today. It shows that Virginia is asked to give $900,383.08 to United Service Organizations and that the next largest beneficiary of the campaign will be the War Prisoners Aid, with $92,414.79 from the sum to be raised within the state. It is estimated that the War Fund throughout the state and the War and Community Fund combined within the cities with community chests, will raise more than $2,500,000 in Virginia this year.

W. Taylor Murphy, president of the fund presented Governor Darden figures yesterday to show that United Seamen's Service has been budgeted $79,834.48 from Virginia's quota.

THIEVES ENTER SEVERAL PLACES ON 17TH STREET

Sun Dial Gift Shop Suffers Greatest Loss

Between midnight and dawn Wednesday October 11, thieves played havoc on 17th Street. The Sun Dial Gift Shop was entered and looting amounted to considerable sums of money. The largest item being a pile of silk hose from the stock room.

The offices of Page & Dunn, realtors, were then entered. The thieves left chaos behind but found only a small amount of change. Two window screens of the V. E. P. building were cut but the offices were not entered.

A side window in the office of The Virginia Beach News building was "jimmied." What thieves could hope to find of use in a print shop is beyond the power of comprehension, however an electric wall clock and small change, change disappeared from the office, after a locked drawer had been broken open.

Razors and barber tools were taken from the barber shop on Pacific Avenue and an unsuccessful attempt was made to enter the offices of the Norfolk Southern Bus terminal.

The Virginia Beach Police made a survey Wednesday morning of the places entered but as yet have come to no definite conclusion about the vandals.

Woman's Club Has Birthday Party

The Woman's Club of Princess Anne County held its 19th annual birthday party at the Potomac Hotel Tuesday, October 10. The fifty-three members present enjoyed a delicious luncheon with birthday cake cut by the president and wishes by the members for success in the coming year.

Former Pastor Only Chaplain in Hampton Roads To Present Certificate

The Virginia Beach Baptist Church joined with churches over the nation on Sunday evening in "Recognition Day," by honoring pastors who have become chaplains. Lieut. Lonnie W. Meachum, former pastor, who resides at 2800 Baltic Avenue, was the only chaplain on duty near enough to present his church with a congratulatory message signed by Secretary of Navy James Forrestal, recently returned from Pacific duty with the Marines.

The Rev. Koy Peterson, pastor, accepted the citation on behalf of the church. Lieutenant Meachum enlisted for Navy service in the Spring of 1941 after a pastorate there of seven years.

Secretary of Navy James Forrestal forwarded the following congratulatory message to the churches:

"The United States Navy is most grateful to you for providing a Navy chaplain during the present world crisis. In recognition of this patriotic sacrifice on your part, the Navy Department presents this certificate of service as permanent evidence of your contribution on behalf of the religious life of the armed forces. We are all justly proud of the noble record being established by our chaplains all over the world in ships and ashore."

VA. CONSERVATION COMMISSION ASKS HELP IN RESTORATION

Rosarian Speaks To Garden Club

Miss Evelyn Hill, Authority On Rose Culture Urges Forest Fire Prevention

Miss Evelyn Collins Hill, an authority on the cultivation of roses, addressed members of the Princess Anne Garden Club on the "History and Cultivation of Roses," Monday afternoon at "Lynwood," the home of Mrs. John Frost Woodhouse, at London Bridge. As conservation chairman of the club, she urged members to assist in the program for prevention of forest fires.

Mrs. Roland Thorpe, chairman of horticulture, talked on "Fall Planting and Getting the Garden in Shape for Winter." Mrs. Gerould M. Rumble, war bond chairman reported $4,000 worth of bonds bought by members during the Summer.

Miss Mary Johns, USO chairman, announced Sunday, October 22, as the day the club will furnish hostesses at the Virginia Beach USO. The hours will be 3 to 7 in the afternoon.

The Princess Anne Garden Club has been outstanding in its activity of preservation of everything which will make permanent the history of the county. The preservation of old homes, local history, old graves and tomb stones and in the encouragement in the line of horticulture in raising plants, shrubs, trees and all the things native to this section.

The exhibits for the Fall meeting consisted in all home-grown flowers. Mrs. Hallie Old and Miss Evelyn Collins Hill exhibited roses. Miss Hill also had an exhibit of Fall flowers and two most unusual exhibits for this season were a bowl of pink Lavandula camellias and one of Isanderia azalis.

Mrs. George Bush, contact chairman for the Red Cross and hospital work presented plans for the Christmas work with the proposal to furnish flowers, presents and entertainment for the men in the hospital near here.

At the conclusion of the business meeting the hostess entertained her guests at a delicious oyster roast served on the waterfront of Lynnhaven River.

Like humans, trees are born, grow, reproduce, work, rest and die of old age—but they don't have to go through second childhood.

Richmond.—The Virginia Conservation Commission has just issued an appeal for information on the location of unmarked and otherwise neglected graves of distinguished Virginians. It was explained that, with the aid of a $2,000 appropriation by the 1944 General Assembly, the Commission will restore such graves and mark them properly.

William A. Wright, commission chairman, said the project would be under the immediate supervision of Dr. H. J. Eckenrode, director of the Division of History, and he asked that information be sent to Dr. Eckenrode at the Commission's office in Richmond.

It is known that the graves of many eminent Virginians are not properly marked. Dr. Eckenrode said, adding that he had the names of about 400 others whose burial places he has been unable to locate.

"Many of these places," he added, "are known only to persons in their immediate vicinity. That is why we are appealing to them."

Garden Club Active

The Princess Anne Garden Club for some time has been taking steps along the above lines to restore old graves in Princess Anne County which is one of the oldest districts in Virginia. There are many very old burying grounds throughout the county and many graves famous in the annals of Virginia history. An attempt is being made to save as many of these old tomb stones as is possible and have them removed to the cemetery of the Old Donation Church, one of the oldest churches in Virginia.

Mrs. D. B. White is chairman of the committee in charge of this work. Consent of the family owning the property must be gotten before any work can be done as to moving the stone. This Committee has a most responsible undertaking and one of vital interest to the history of Princess Anne County.

WHAT ABOUT RECONVERSION

By Ruth Taylor

You know how we run a word to death. Well, the present fad is for the word "reconversion." It is a good thought-provoking word—but there is one meaning of it which I don't think has been properly discussed, and which is even more important than business reconversion.

It is the reconversion, not of manpower, but of mental power, of unity power. The force that backs our fighting men is not merely force of arms, but force of coordinated thought. It is practical working together.

We have learned in war how important it is to put aside our personal preferences and to do a job that is in the common interest. Are we, when the war is over, going to forget our hard learned lesson and slump back into a selfish way of life? Are we going to scrap the plant we have built, the cooperative machine that did the job? Are we going to revert to bickering among ourselves?

Why cannot we reconvert this moral force and carry on our crusade? All we need to do is to change the objective of our war—to fight conditions, not men.

We have had a manpower shortage because we had to produce so many weapons of destruction. Cannot we, if we turn the same energy to affect, have full employment producing those things which make life more enjoyable?

Instead of building the paraphernalia of war, cannot we build homes? If we fought along conditions, poverty and disease with one tenth of the energy we have put into fighting people, we would destroy an olden enemy and assure the future for those who follow. We have worked hard to make our soldiers healthy and strong—to face death and mutilation. Cannot we work as hard to make our children healthy and strong, to wipe out the plagues of disease?

When in forums, my audiences express concern about the problem of peace. I ask how many are doing community war work. Most of them are. Then I ask how many gave as much time to their community in peace. The silence is awful. However, there was a woman once who broke it by saying, "We get it."

Reconvert to peace by all means—but do a complete job with the same energy used in the war. Can't you see what a Utopia America could become? And we could bring it about!

The easiest thing that one can pick up now days is a quarrel. And that ability doesn't belong entirely to people who are old and tired and quarrelsome. The majority of families have personal peevishness of their own, to say nothing of universal anxieties about their own folks who are in the war. Never mind folks, the finish of the war in Europe will bring about better days. America will throw her shoulders back again, face the music and find our people going ahead. America is the greatest country in the world. Don't be pessimistic, but keep right on jumping the bumps and you will be all right.

BE CAREFUL—AND PATIENT!

Because home accidents that killed 6,000 workers last year seriously impeded the war effort, the Federal Security Agency endorses these safety suggestions: Walk—don't run, especially on stairways; don't carry heavy loads on stairways; don't let the children play on unprotected stairways; don't let floors become slippery or cluttered; never leave soap in bathtub and use non-skid mat to prevent slipping; keep utensil handles turned away from edge of stove; never touch an electric appliance and a grounded metal object at the same time; disconnect electrical appliances when not in use; don't smoke in bed; keep pillows out of babies' beds; keep pins, needles and sharp tools away from children; keep garage doors open when starting car; and use short ladders instead of stools, chairs or boxes in reaching for high places.

BUILDING NEW BRIDGES

By DuBois Moris, Jr.

In a private apartment at the Army Medical Center in Washington sits a white-haired man whose erect, soldierly bearing and sparkling eyes belie his 80-odd years. He follows with active interest all news of the preparation of American troops for the coming decisive assault on German-held Europe. It stirs old memories.

Nearly 30 years ago he led the American doughboys across the Atlantic to help drive the Boche out of France. His name is General John J. Pershing, commander of our Expeditionary Forces in the last war.

What he thinks about the progress of the war is usually revealed only to his close associates, and at intervals to men like General Marshall who were trained by him, and who hold his wisdom and experience in highest regard. Last week "Black Jack" Pershing broke his customary silence. In one of his few public utterances since Pearl Harbor, the veteran general emphasized an aspect of the coming conflict that has been overlooked by too many of us.

"This is a war of ideas," he said. "It is a battle of faiths. It can be won and peace made lasting, only if what we believe in is strong enough to win. The fight in make our national faith prevail—in ourselves, our homes, our country—is the fight in which every American must take his part."

PLAN LIVING WAR MEMORIAL

A living war memorial—a community in which invalid and disabled soldiers may live with their families—has been proposed for Scotland by an ex-service men's organization and will be built as soon as the endowment is complete and a building site is found, the British Information Services report. Blocks of homes will be grouped around a cloister in which will be a clinic staffed and equipped to give hospital treatment and medical aid. Covered corridors will lead to each group of apartments so that patients can be taken for treatment in any weather. The community will be complete in itself but will be built probably near Edinburgh—near shops, schools, churches, places of entertainment and centers of employment. Each tenant will pay whatever rent he can afford from his disability pension.

HENRY HOKE

"BLACK MAIL" by Henry Hoke is being talked about as the most important and sensational book of its kind since "Under Cover." It tells the true story of an American businessman who turned himself into a one-man crusade in an effort to get at the facts behind the use of the U. S. mails by Nazi propagandists and their sympathizers. As executive manager of the Direct Mail Advertising Association, Henry Hoke was in a better position than most to find out what individuals and what organizations were flooding the U. S. mails with propaganda designed to soften up the American people and make us useless in the war. His investigations led to an exposure of the misuse of the congressional franking privilege and put some well-known political figures in a very uncomfortable position. They led also to the indictment and conviction of Nazi agents and their little helpmates in this country.

Richard Tregaskis, author of "Guadalcanal Diary," has followed that highly successful book-of-the-month with an account of his experiences in Italy and Africa, "Invasion Diary." One story he tells is of the private of the 36th Division famous for his foul language. When the 36th hit the beach, they were subjected to shattering artillery bombardment and the profane fellow lying in a foxhole, began to pray a loud voice, "Oh, God, please save me," and continued in this vein. Another private, in a near-by foxhole, recognized the voice, and shouted, "Hey, Joe, why don't you knock off crying for help and talk to somebody you know?"

Chinese ways are strange and mysterious to American salesmen. Donald Dunham explains in his book, "Envoy Unextraordinary." One of them was negotiating with a Chinese broker to do business with him. After he had left, the American Consul who had conducted the meeting explained that his British competitor had offered the Chinese a larger percentage. The salesman jumped. "But why didn't he say so? I might have been able to shave off a bit here and there." But the Consul advised him to sit by and wait. "If he likes you, he'll sign anyway," he said. And sure enough the next day he was told that his offer was accepted. The Chinese had turned down the British because he was said to mistreat his houseboy.

Song Of Beach To Be On Air

"The Virginia Beach Jump," a song written by Herman E. Cox, of Norfolk, will be broadcast over Station WWRB, on Monday, October 16 at 10:30 p.m. on the program called "Songwriters on Parade" for amateur songwriters. Mr. Cox is a native and lifelong resident of Norfolk and at present is employed at the Norfolk Navy Yard. He has composed several other popular songs, which he says is his pastime.

Advertising must be a good thing because there are so many successful business men who say so.

Social Security Aids Old and Young

Figures released by the Social Security Board show that more than half the money that is now paid to beneficiaries under the Old-Age and Survivors Insurance program is going to retired workers and their families. Of $18,300,000 that is paid out every month in benefits under this system, $9,864,000 goes to retired workers past 65 years of age who have qualified for monthly benefits. Some 418,500 retired workers are now drawing monthly payments of Old-Age Insurance and 122,000 of them have wives 65 years old or more who likewise receive monthly payments. Many of these retired workers have children, step children or adopted children who also receive monthly payments under this insurance program.

More than 600,000 older workers, who are now eligible for the benefits, have kept their jobs in business or industry instead of claiming their benefits. Most of these workers will retire from regular jobs as the demand for war workers is over, and will claim monthly payments of Old Age Insurance which will greatly increase the amount of retirement benefit money disbursed.

Beside the many older men and women who benefit under this program there are 288,000 children and 100,000 widows with young children who receive regular monthly payments under the Old Age and Survivors Insurance system. Some of these are the children, step-children or adopted children of retired workers; but most of them are survivors of younger workers who have died since monthly benefits became payable, January 1, 1940. Mr. Hulcher said that a widow with the children of a deceased wage-earner in her care, may claim monthly benefits for herself and for the children, regardless of her age. Residents of Princess Anne who have reason to believe that they are entitled to Old Age or Survivors Insurance benefits can write or call the Norfolk office of the Social Security Board, located at 520 Frazier Building. There is no charge whatever for services rendered by any office of the Social Security Board.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"The war sure has made a lot of changes in this old world of ours, hasn't it, Judge?" "Fenty of them, John. One that few people realize is that the rubber producing center of the world is now right here in the United States."

"When the Japs conquered the big natural rubber producing centers of the world they thought they had us licked. But in two short years, thanks to American industry, we are now producing synthetic rubber enough to supply all our military and essential civilian needs."

"Our rubber experts knew how to make it but the problem was to get the huge amounts of industrial alcohol needed. Almost overnight the country's beverage distillers stopped making whiskey and converted 100% to the production of this vital ingredient. A high government official said recently this was '...an almost unparalleled example of the overnight conversion of an entire industry from peace to war.'"

"Come to think of it, Judge, it was a mighty fortunate thing the beverage distilling industry was in existence, wasn't it?"

Theatre Prevues

Friday and Saturday, October 13 and 14, "Mr. Skeffington" will be the attraction at the Bayne Theater. The Book-of-the-Month Club's story of stories comes to the screen starring Bette Davis and Claude Rains. Walter Abel and Richard Waring.

"Mr. Skeffington" is essentially a character study, a brilliant delineation in cinematic terms, of a beautiful but unscrupulous woman.

The fabulous Fanny Skeffington, having married for money, blithely schemes and coquettes her way through twenty-six years of assorted loves, suitors and shallow fripperies, in tragic ignorance of the misery and heartbreak she has sown en route, the seeds of which are sprouting all around her.

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday Spencer Tracy, Signe Hasso, Hume Cronyn and Jessica Tandy will be starred in "Seventh Cross," which tells of the successful escape of one of seven fugitives from a concentration camp in the Fall of 1936, when, although war had not yet begun, such camps were fast filling with German citizens who rejected the Nazi creed.

"Waterloo Bridge" starring Vivian Leigh, Robert Taylor, Lucile Watson and Virginia Field will be shown at the Bayne on Wednesday and Thursday. This is a timely and tender love story.

With its vital and exciting background of London of the war years, 1917 and 1940, the story is woven around a ballet dancer and an aristocratic young British officer, who meet on historic Waterloo Bridge during an air raid and seek shelter in the Waterloo underground.

At the Roland Theater on Friday and Saturday "Jam Session" will be the feature attraction. Ann Miller is featured with Charlie Barnett and his orchestra and Louis Armstrong and his band. Also Van Cliburn, Glen Gray, Teddy Powell and the Pied Pipers. A real carnival of swing music and singing and dancing stars.

Sunday and Monday "Candlelight in Algebra" will be the attraction. This is the story of a lonely house giving the signal to start the amazing prelude to invasion. James Mason, Carla Lehmann, Raymond Lovell and Enid Stamp are cast in the leading roles.

"Jamboree" starring Ruth Terry, George Byron, Paul Harvey and Edwin Stanley will be seen on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at the Roland. The picture brings a variety of music, western, swing and mountain melody, sure to please an audience of varied tastes. Also Dick Foran, Alma Lloyd and Charles Middleton in "Song of the Saddle." This is a "high, wide and musical western," a wild melodrama of the wide open spaces, sprinkled with beloved ballads of the West sung by Dick Foran.

Health Notes

"Slowly but certainly the idea of personal health conservation is supplanting the old attitude of physical carelessness and neglect. Vigorous outdoor sports for both girls and boys, the emphasis upon the advantages and attractiveness of robust health for everybody, and the step-up of health-promotional activities by the medical profession and public health officials are all tending to impress the average citizen with the idea that personal vim, vigor and vitality are worthy assets. However, there still are too many who have a clear appreciation of this fact, but fall in one way or another to apply it," states Dr. I. C. Riggins, commissioner of health.

"With medical and scientific knowledge at its present high level, a reasonable interest for one's physical fitness not only should,

but in the average case would, develop and maintain a surplus of vitality for the normally well person. And it can be stated that the factor 'vitality plus,' if possessed often represents not only the difference between maximum and ordinary success, but between an ordinary and maximum joy of life itself.

"Thus, to be quite satisfied with just good health not only deprives one of the body's highest possibilities, but sometimes invites disease through lack of the utmost physical resistance which otherwise automatically would exist.

"There are a great many persons, most of them unconscious of the fact, whose health attainments are limited to staying out of sick-beds. However, this is far from the goal of physical possibilities for most person. One's health interest should be positive not neutral or negative.

"Many adults, judging from their daily habits of omission and commission, seem to be more interested in discovering how far they can flout nature's requirements, rather than to strive reasonably to build up the best physical condition of which they are individually capable. More often the otherwise there is nothing startling or spectacular in these misguided attempts. It is merely one bad habit here or there. The results are just the same, however.

"It is true that a small proportion of the adult population, over-sold on commercial aids to well-being such as tonics, vitamins, diets and various fads and fancies, take physical fitness too seriously, and gain nothing by it. However, whether too enthusiastic or too careless about health, the fact remains that vitality plus is still the possession of the minority.

"The family physician, however much needed in times of actual illness, is equally valuable as an advisor on personal habits. To obtain his counsel on the art of living and to apply it daily, despite the minor deprivations of a pet devitalizing habit or so, is to apply wisdom and attain vitality plus.

"Thus, intelligent personal co-operation with the family doctor is the indicated next step forward. To learn from him what one should not do, to get the most out of one's body in health is one of the smartest things to do. To apply this information daily and to have in addition a periodic physical check up by the family physician, normally will result in vitality plus, now enjoyed by the very wise and envied by the majority of persons."

If you think the truth is easy to discover try reading two newspapers of opposing political views.

"WE'D RATHER SAY YES"

We don't like to tell people that they'll have to wait to get a home telephone. We'd much rather say "yes" to requests for service. That's the way it used to be.

But the needs of war have first claim on available telephone equipment and on telephone manufacturing facilities and manpower. Delays in filling civilian orders just can't be helped.

All of us telephone people sincerely appreciate the cooperative understanding being shown by the many thousands who are waiting their turn to get service.

FIRE-PREVENTION WEEK-OCTOBER 8-14

IF YOU were to see that headline on the front page of this newspaper—"Enemy Within Our Borders!"—you'd be startled, alarmed and incredulous. But it is true that there is an enemy within our borders which annually takes a staggering toll in lives, manpower, and material... and that enemy is CARELESSNESS with fire!

Dispersable as that fact is in peacetime, it is doubly so in wartime... for fire saps our war effort in hundreds of related ways.

Forest fires alone annually cost man-hours equivalent to the labor needed for 1,300 medium bombers; every year valuable ground the size of New York State is laid waste. The conflagrations endanger factories, power houses, bridges, army cantonments. And one of the greatest losses is that of valuable timber—timber urgently needed not only for the prosecution of the war, but for America's future.

The most significant fact is that the most frequent and damaging fires are not caused by arsonists, saboteurs, or lightning. They are caused by the carelessness and thoughtlessness of our own loyal and patriotic citizens. Which means that YOU—all of us—MUST be more careful, must be on the alert against this enemy within our borders!

Auto Convention In Richmond 19-20

One of the largest attended conventions of the year, advance registrations for which have already overtaxed the capacity of the John Marshall, Richmond and Murphy Hotels, will be that of the Automotive Trade Association of Virginia, scheduled for Richmond on October 19th and 20th. A program of unusual interest has been arranged, which includes nationally known figures in the automotive field.

Among those who will address the convention will be N. C. Desendoff, director of distribution of General Motors, Detroit; James Dalton, editor of "Motor," New York; Crawford F. Joyner, commissioner of Motor Vehicles of Virginia, and others.

From advance registrations, it is estimated that close to 600 will attend the two-day automobile dealers convention in Richmond, the officers of which are Walter J. Wilkins, president, Norfolk; Paul Freed, Waynesboro; Landon R. Wyatt, Danville, and Harry D. McReynolds, vice presidents and W. G. King, Richmond, secretary-treasurer. Irving J. Kline, of Norfolk, is a director.

EVERYBODY WELCOME

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Soldiers vs. Civilians in Tomorrow's World

You hear some talk about how—when the war is over—there's going to be bad feeling between soldiers and civilians; how the country will be divided into those who fought in uniform and those who stayed at home.

Well, maybe you saw that letter from a soldier overseas, in one of our big magazines. It said that men in uniform aren't thinking any such thoughts—any more than folks at home are.

The most important thing is, that we're all engaged in one titanic struggle to preserve our freedom and our rights—not just as soldiers or civilians—but as Americans!

From where I sit, that attitude is going to win the war—and win the Peace too. If we can respect the rights of others—whether it's their right to enjoy a glass of beer, or to vote the way they please—we've got a mighty sound foundation for our peace-time world.

NEWS OF OUR MEN and WOMEN IN UNIFORM

Prichard Sells Virginia Beach

From Raymond Prichard with the Army Air Forces at Lowery Field, Colorado, comes a letter with a bit of news for our "Servicemen and Women" column.

Raymond is one of those loyal fellows who not only loves Virginia Beach but "sells" it even out in Denver. He and Garland Gribble, also of Virginia Beach, are at the same post and from all accounts have been "doing Denver" and even staging some Beach Club like parties to show the other boys in the air corps what Virginia Beach is like. The performances have been so successful that ten aviators are sold on the idea of buying lots at the Beach on which to build after the war. Provided the lots can be found.

DEBT SERVICE COMMISSION PRESENTS 4TH ANNUAL REPORT

Virginia Beach, Va., September 1, 1944

To the Honorable Mayor and Council

Town of Virginia Beach:

Four years ago the Council adopted a plan for paying off the existing fixed and floating indebtedness of the town within 25 years and sponsored an amendment to the Town Charter which has made the plan obligatory. The plan requires the yearly payment of $65,000 into a special fund which can be used only for the payment of principal and interest of the old debt. New debt may be incurred but only in connection with a definite plan for its repayment and the money for servicing such new debt must be separately provided and accounted for. The plan provides for the complete retirement of each item of the debt at maturity with the exception of the Walkway bonds due in 1957, which are to be refunded by four short time issues of bonds or notes, all to expire within the 25 year period. The yearly amount of $65,000 was arrived at by a projection of the proposed account over the entire period and was the smallest average payment which would ensure that the balances in the fund would always be sufficient to meet demands. In this connection, however, the fund was committed to earning at least $7,000 during its life. You will now be interested to know that a new projection of the account up to the time when the walkway bonds fall due, giving effect to the interest savings already made or assured by prepayments, shows that the position at that time will be such that the best of terms may confidently be expected for the necessary refunding. One of the most effective of these prepayments was accomplished during the fiscal year just ended, all of the holders of the remaining Sea Pines Bulkhead notes consenting to their retirement.

The State Treasurer also consented to the prepayment of the remainder of the Literary Loan and we have now succeeded in paying off every outstanding note of the Town. Therefore, as no new indebtedness remains unpaid, the present debt consists solely of bonds as follows:

Water and sewer, 5 per cent, due August, 1949	$ 25,000.00
Water, 6 per cent, due July, 1954	75,000.00
Streets and sewer, 5 per cent, due April, 1955	85,000.00
Streets and sewer, 6 per cent, due March, 1957	110,000.00
Walkway, 5 1/2 per cent, due July, 1957	250,000.00
Water and streets, 5 1/2 per cent, due October, 1958	50,000.00
Streets and sewer, 5 1/2 per cent, due February, 1960	50,000.00
Sewage disposal, 4 1/2 per cent, due serially 1944-1967	79,000.00
County debt assumed, due serially 1945-1957	27,911.00

A total of $751,911.00

Deducting the cash on hand, $9,233.31, the net debt is $742,677.69

Our cash balance at the beginning of the fiscal year was $15,558.13, and we received $65,000.00 during the year, giving us $80,558.13 to account for. Our expenditures were $71,324.82 as follows:

Debt retirement	$26,885.27
Interest on debt	44,462.54
Bank charges	167.01
Bonds of Commissioners	7.50
Postage	1.70
Stationery	50

Total $71,324.82

Cash on hand at the end of the year, therefore, amounted to $9,233.31, of which $4,784.94 is reserved for the next payment on the Sewage Disposal bonds leaving a free balance of $4,448.37.

Debt retirement was made up of:

Sewage Disposal bonds	$ 4,000.00
Cavalier Shores Bulkhead Notes	10,193.27
Lynnham District Road Bonds	1,072.00
Sea Pines Bulkhead Notes	8,220.00
Literary Loan	3,200.00

Total $26,685.27

The first three items were obligatory, the last two were largely prepayments as previously mentioned.

The credit of the town is very high. The last offerings of bonds of which we have knowledge was on a 2.34 per cent basis which is probably the highest price ever quoted for Virginia Beach obligations. The commission has continued its chairman as such for another period of two years.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY L. RICE,

EDWARD M. HARDY,

Commissioners.

Note: There were only two members of the Commission at the time this report was presented. The vacancy was later filled by the appointment of Albert W. Turnbull.

GOV. DARDEN TO STUMP STATE FOR DEMOCRATIC PARTY

Aided By Army of Speakers To Address Rallies and Gatherings

A battery of top flight stalwarts of the Democratic Party in Virginia will carry the party's campaign for the Roosevelt-Truman ticket and the entire slate of Congressional nominees to the people of the Commonwealth during the closing three weeks of the campaign.

Headed by Governor Darden, the army of speakers will take the stump this week, addressing rallies and gatherings in every section of the state. The Governor is slated for four speeches already and State headquarters has announced that he will be called upon to deliver several others before election day.

The Governor takes to the hustings in Southampton County on Wednesday, and on the afternoon of October 31 he will speak at a rally in Isle of Wight County and that night in Suffolk. On November 2 he will deliver an address in Farmville.

Lieut. Governor William M. Tuck, also on the headquarters list for a number of speeches in the closing days of the campaign, led off this week with a speech at a county-wide rally at Boynton. Others listed as campaign speakers for a score or more of rallies already arranged and others to be set during the next two weeks are Congressman Dave E. Satterfield, Hill Montague, Ashton Doyell, L. Preston Collins, Vivian L. Page, T. McCall Frazier, John Hopkins Hall, William A. Wright and Abram P. Staples.

In addition to the rallies that are being arranged, Earl A. Fitzpatrick, State Campaign Manager, has announced a program of 511 "spo" campaign appeals on 14 radio stations in the state beginning October 20 and continuing through election day.

Mr. Fitzpatrick said that the Democrats will "let no grass grow under their feet" during the remaining days of the campaign.

The recent ruling of the committee on Police and Firemen of the Town Council, "Recreation outside of town limits prohibited," will make it pretty tough on the Chief with ducking season just around the corner.

Breakdown Of Princess Anne War Fund Quota

How Princess Anne County's funds will be used for the relief of some 60,000 people throughout the world and in prosecuting the war effort, is outlined in a quota breakdown just prepared by County War Fund Chairman Frank Cox. Mr. Cox said that the county quota has been accepted and set by the local committee, which is optimistic over its ability to go well over the top this year.

Largest of the agency quotas to be accepted here is that for USO, which receives more than 49 per cent of the total. USO gets $4,180.55 from the local committee, if its budget is raised and proportionately more if there is an over-subscription.

Other agencies that are helping in the war effort and are included in that Fund, are the War Prisoners Aid, Virginia has many prisoners of war in both Jap and German prison camps and this county feels that $429.09 raised for this purpose is a small contribution to their comfort and morale, Mr. Cox said.

Other budget items given approval include $370.68 for the United Seamen's Service, and $40.25 for American Field Service.

Local sums for other War Fund agencies include $11.09 for American Denmark Relief, $38.12 for American Relief of Czechoslovakia, $183.08 for American Relief for France, $148.29 for American Relief for Italy, $74.10 for American Relief for Norway, $29.59 for Belgian War Relief Society, $221.37 for British War Relief Society, $9.21 for Friends of Luxembourg, $182.48 for Greek War Relief Association, $119.95 for Philippine War Relief, $178.73 for Polish War Relief, $50.74 for Queen Wilhelmina, $630.25 for Russian War Relief, $705.37 for United China Relief, $19.61 for United Lithuanian Relief, $52.12 for United Yugoslav Relief Fund, $202.18 for Refugee Relief Trustees, and $16.80 for U. S. Committee for the Care of European Children.

Sub-Commander Gets Tobacco From Beach

The Virginia Beach Police and Fire Departments sent free cigarettes to our fighting men when solicited by a representative of one of the largest tobacco companies in the country. In each package a name was placed as the donor. Chief C. E. Hobeck received the following card from the commander of the submarine, U. S. S. Sea Owl, somewhere out of New York: "Fellows, Thanks a million for the thoughtful and generous gift of pipe tobacco, we are enjoying it to the utmost. Contrary to general opinion, pipe smoking is very popular among submarine sailors. I have a row of eight in front of me as I write—even though it does smoke up the boat a bit on a long drive. On behalf of my officers and crew, thanks again for your kindness."

Sincerely,
Carter Bennett, Comdr.

Police and Firemen Strike Snag In Council Committee

In the eyes of the Police and Fire Committee of the Town Council it appears that officers who come under their jurisdiction can stray from the straight and narrow path as well as civilians.

We are informed that Police Officer Earl Wise and K. C. James and City Firemen Mike Vanture and Gilbert Taylor have received notice from the Police and Fire Committee of the Town Council suspending them from active duty for periods ranging from 5 to 15 days. Mr. Wise was transferred to the police department from another department of service with the town, in an emergency.

Due to the absence from the city of H. A. Holt, Jr., chairman of the committee, we have not learned the cause for this action, however the occasion seems to have been the attendance of these four men at a football game in Norfolk while off duty or being replaced by experienced substitutes.

Officer Wise has tendered his resignation as a member of the Virginia Beach Police force.

REV. BLOODWORTH TO LEAVE VIRGINIA BEACH CHURCH

Rev. R. E. Forrest of Accomac Church To Succeed Mr. Bloodworth

With the conclusion of the annual Virginia Conference of the Methodist Church held in Lynchburg, Va., thirty-six new pastors have been assigned to the district. The Virginia Beach Church will lose its pastor, the Rev. Marcus Bloodworth, who has been with the church for over four years. He will be transferred to the Methodist Church in Cheriton on the Eastern Shore of Virginia. The Rev. R. E. Forrest, of the Accomac Church will succeed Mr. Bloodworth in the Virginia Beach Church.

During his pastorate at the Virginia Beach Church Mr. Bloodworth was particularly active in work among the men of the armed forces in this community, inaugurating in the church the regular Sunday evening open house for fellowship and enjoyment and while Camp Pendleton was in operation encouraged men of musical ability to sing in the choir at services on Sunday.

It is with regret that the news of Mr. Bloodworth's transfer must be accepted. He and Mrs. Bloodworth made a place for themselves not only in the Methodist Church but in the community at large.

J. Standish Purchases Planning 1950 Operated For Past Twenty Years

C. T. Whitehead, owner and operator of the Whitehead Lumber Company, has sold his planning mill and other heavy interests in the County to Mr. James Standish.

For the past twenty-four years Mr. Whitehead has been cutting timber in Princess Anne County and manufacturing lumber for the past twenty years. A year or two ago he built a group of tourist cabins at the Beach and while not a hotel man the venture has taken considerable time. The inability to secure competent assistants and wishing to further promote his latest venture is the cause of the change in ownership of the lumber business.

"THE VOICE of a majority, saving the course of government does not insure good government; it is the voice of a well-informed, and well-intentioned people."

TWO PATROTS

It seems particularly fitting that with the passing of two great American patriots, Alfred E. Smith and Wendell L. Willkie, we take note of a fact which appears again and again in American life. The fact is that America is spiritually rich precisely because her life has been nurtured by men of different races and religions. Mr. Smith was a Roman Catholic of Irish descent, Mr. Willkie an Episcopalian of German descent. Both believed in and, during their days, defended American principles.

When, in 1941, anti-Semitism was injected into the debate on foreign policy, Mr. Smith was quick to speak out against it. "It strikes," he said "at the very basis of our national unity and, if spread, would certainly be followed by most un-American elements in our population. We have always been able to live in peace and cooperation with all Americans including Jews, and all other racial and religious groups, and I am among the many who will fight any movement to make this country believe otherwise."

Years before he said, "I believe in absolute freedom of conscience for all men and in equality of all churches, all sects, and all beliefs before the law as a matter of right and not as a matter of favor. . . . And I believe in the common brotherhood of man under the common fatherhood of God." That was Alfred E. Smith, the leader and wise counselor, whom we mourn and praise.

Mr. Willkie stated his position just as strongly. In an article in the Saturday Evening Post (June 27, 1942) he wrote, "The height of our civilization, it seems to me, has been reached not by our assembly lines, our inventions or any of our great factitious development, but by the ability of peoples of varying beliefs and of different racial extractions to live side by side here in the United States with mutual understanding, respect and helpfulness. . . ."

Previously, in 1940 he had said, "One of the most precious elements of American life is religious freedom. In exercise of that freedom we in the United States have lived happily and flourished for more than 150 years. This nation has been built by men of all faiths working side by side and in harmony. If we are to keep this nation intact we must preserve that principle. . . . That was Wendell L. Willkie, the leader and wise counselor, whom we mourn and praise.

Mr. Smith and Mr. Willkie spoke the language of the true America. They spoke in the way Americans have always spoken. This is the way, by the grace of God, Americans will speak forever.

Current effort of National War Fund to complete its 1945 budget by asking the American people to loan over, die down, and shell out a few millions for local war and community chests, USO, Prisoners' Aid, and war relief as a practical extension of a good neighbor policy which got us out of some countries back.

ly $700,000 through the Queen Wilhelmina Fund for Relief of the Netherlands and overseas territories and which has been a good friend of the United States for several hundred years. The Dutch, who fought nearly a century to establish the principle that men should have political and religious freedom, gave temporary haven to those American prototypes, the Pilgrims, when they set out to seek similar rights and privileges. The Dutch gave New York a good start along the road to independence, as well as sound ideas of industry, which have spread far beyond Spuyten Duyvil. The Dutch welcomed the first ambassadors, and gave aid to a new American nation. It was the Dutch governor of a Caribbean island who first saluted the new American flag. The Dutch have contributed to America by sending to these shores sturdy, stable, thrifty, high-minded people who have put no little polish on the democratic melting pot and sound red cupricus in the American blood stream.

More recently Americans have had occasion to thank the Dutch both in The Netherlands and the Netherlands East Indies for demonstrating to the Nazis and the Japs that they intended to cling to the ideologies of the decent peoples of the world, come what might. What came, after these people had held out to the limit of their strength while other nations were arming, were besat and destruction in their worst forms. The Dutch now face the tough problem of restoring countries methodically put to torch, flood, and demolition bombs on a scale and with results which strain sympathies.

It looks as if National War Fund is doing more than raise money. It is endeavoring to prove to the Dutch that their neighborly kindness to Americans in those ancient days of dire need shall be reciprocated.

Letters

Editor, Virginia Beach News:

Elsewhere in this issue is published the fourth annual report of the Debt Service Commission recently presented to the mayor and council. Virginia Beach citizens should be interested in this review of a most satisfactory situation, and for their further information we have obtained figures showing what has been accomplished during the four years the debt plan has been in operation. Serial bonds paid off amount to $12,738.00, notes to $90,773.14 and the school auditorium mortgage, otherwise known as the literary fund indebtedness, was paid in full. This last amounted to $5,000.00, making the total debt retirement during the four years $115,111.14. The picture is not complete without the recollection that in addition to the $65,000.00 provided yearly for debt service the town has invested in a new town hall and jail and an incinerator. New borrowing for these projects was kept down to $25,000.00, all of which was repaid in two years. Altogether a record of which the town authorities may well be proud.

Our debt plan is unique in that it equalizes the payments for debt service over a definite period and makes the fund responsible for both principal and interest. Under this plan all savings in interest, as debt is paid off, are available for more payments of principal so that, as the years pass, more and more of the yearly sum will be so used. During the past four years the annual interest charge has been reduced about $4,500.

Periodically, our Virginia newspapers set forth the finding of certain statisticians that Virginia Beach has the largest debt per capita of any town in the state. This statement, which does not in the least annoy our citizens, is as

Heart Attack Fatal To Dr. Zimmerly

Dr. Howard Henry Zimmerly, 54, director of the Virginia Truck Experiment Station at Diamond Springs and one of the country's leading horticulturists, died suddenly of a heart attack at his home at the station Sunday night shortly before 11 o'clock.

In 1918 he came to the Virginia Truck Experiment Station as assistant horticulturist, the following year going to Delaware as a county agriculturist, remaining until 1931 when he joined the U. S. Department of Agriculture as a senior horticulturist.

Late in 1932 he returned to the Truck Experiment Station as director and has held the position continuously since.

During his residence at the station, Dr. Zimmerly was particularly interested in improving the strains of spinach and kale grown in this vegetable producing region and was credited with enhancing materially their quality and yield. His interests, however, extended to all growing things; and he was as ready to advise on true as it is meaningless and misleading. Quite a number of things can be proven about Virginia Beach by using a population figure of 2,600 as the measure of its activities. With the one observation that our concrete sea wall and walkway not common among Virginia towns accounts for the third of the total remaining debt, we may safely leave this question to those accustomed to examining such figures in the light of comparative resources and needs. And especially so as the next 21 years will see all of this past expense paid for and any further improvements equally well financed.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"Yes, I'm afraid there's no denyin' it, Judge... jeeps and trucks and other kinds of motorized equipment have taken the place of the good old horse in modern warfare."

"It's true of lots of things in this war, Eben. Every day we hear of new tactics and requirements and new uses of products. For instance, take the alcohol that is used for war purposes. In World War 1, this vitally needed product was used mostly in making smokeless powder, chemical warfare materials and medical supplies. Today it must do far more... it must provide the base for such indispensable products as synthetic rubber, shatterproof glass, lacquers, plastics and many other of our requirements so essential to victory."

"As a result hundreds of millions of gallons are required every year... half of which is being produced by the beverage distilling industry. Bet you didn't know that, Eben."

"As a matter of fact, I didn't, Judge. That's a mighty important war contribution that had escaped me completely."

Theatre Previews

Friday and Saturday, October 20 and 21, "I Love A Soldier" will be the feature at the Bayne Theater. The famous star discovery of "Going My Way," Barry Fitzgerald will be featured with Paulette Goddard and Sonny Tufts. With a generous sprinkling of drama, comedy and romance "I Love A Soldier" deals with a very timely problem—whether or not girls should marry in war time.

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday Don Ameche, Dana Andrews, William Wythe and Charles Bickford will be co-starred in "Wing And A Prayer."

The film tells the story of an unidentified aircraft carrier which in the early days of shock and confusion following Pearl Harbor, was sent into the Jap-infested Pacific and marked as expendable. Ordered to sea with orders to avoid combat—to run away and not fight back—this bewildered and frustrated force of Navy flyers are forced to take everything the Japs can throw at them without retaliation because they were setting a trap.

"Great Moment" with Joel McCrea, Betty Field and Harry Carey cast in the title roles, will come to the Bayne on Wednesday and Thursday.

At the Roland Theater Friday and Saturday there will be featured "Invisible Man's Revenge," starring John Hall, Leon Errol, John Carradine and Alan Curtis.

Sunday and Monday "Henry Aldrich's Little Secret" starring Jimmy Lydon, Charles Smith and John Liel will be the attraction.

This latest in the family comedy series deals with more of the many complications in the life of Henry Aldrich, played by Jimmy Lydon, and his pal, "Dizzy" (Charles Stevens). Strapped financially, Henry starts a thriving enterprise by minding other people's babies. As head of the Baby Minding Agency, he becomes embroiled in a difficult situation which threatens to disrupt the community life of Centerville not to mention the reputation and good name of the Aldriches.

Wednesday, Thursday and Friday there will be a double feature. "South of Dixie" starring Anne Gwynne, David Bruce and Jerome Cowan also "Pride of the Plains" with Bob Livingston and Smiley Byrnette. "South of Dixie" is both a melodic and amusing with a story concerning a music publishing house and its trials and tribulations when a howl is perpetrated to save it from ruin. "Pride of the Plains" is a real Western in which a king killer and his ruthless gang challenge the law to a fight to the finish.

Good Season For Duck Hunting

From Duck's Unlimited in Canada comes good news for the duck hunters. There are more ducks than for 30 years with flights beginning to loom like "old times" across the big duck factory. Birds are fat with wild ducks and geese plentiful. Close to 10,000 ducks were banded during the Summer and already migration is underway, many varieties "ganging-up" on large waters. Geese migration is greater than in many years.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Ed Hodges and the doctor were holding forth about how words only mean something when you think about them; and that a lot of words seem to lose their meaning just because they're used too glibly.

As the doctor put it, "They roll off your tongue without going through your mind. Take tolerance for instance...some of the people who use it most understand it least."

From where I sit, it looks like the doctor is right. But tolerance is mighty easy to understand.

New Bond Goal To Be Lower

Richmond.—All quotas for the sixth war loan drive, which will begin November 30 and extend through December 16, will be less than the fifth campaign, Dr. Francis J. Gaines, chairman of the Virginia War Finance Committee, has been advised by Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau.

The overall national quota for the sixth will be fourteen billion, with five billion for individuals and a half billion of the new "E" quota. The fifth national goal was sixteen billion with six billion for individuals and three billion for "E" bonds.

The "E" accounting period for the sixth drive will be November 1 through December 31.

While modern surgery medical care are skillfully rendering soldiers' bodies and minds being strengthened by conditioning programs in medical department hospitals, "all this effort is being seriously interfered with when disabled soldiers are singled out by stares and prying questions of the public," warns Major General Norman J. Kirk, surgeon general of the army.

U. S. O. To Get Largest Amount In War Fund Drive

Washington, D. C., Oct. 5. — The National War Fund this year launched its campaign the week of October 4 and ending November 11, according to an announcement made by Frank E. Cane, Acting Executive Director of the National Catholic Community Service. Mr. Cane stated that NCCS as a member agency of the USO will share in the total funds subscribed to the National War Fund in forty-eight state organizations and 10,000 communities throughout the country.

Stressing the need for maintaining the splendid support which the American people have given to the needs of American service men and women at home and abroad, as well as those war production workers laboring on the home front, Mr. Cane said, "Each day we are facing a new set of conditions which require the continued support of the American people who have so generously welcomed the opportunity to serve our men and women whenever and wherever they can by contributing gifts of money to carry on the splendid program of the USO, which is financed by the American people through the National War Fund."

Mr. Cane stated that the need for the broad base of support is greater now than ever before. More American men and women are in the service and many more are abroad. "A single contribution," he said, "reaches out to every front because of the long arm of USO which operates some 3,000 clubs and units in the western hemisphere from Alaska to Brazil, and from Newfoundland to Hawaii."

"The NCCS," Mr. Cane said, "is now serving Protestant, Jewish and Catholic service men and women, their families, and war production workers in more than 500 USO clubs and units in forty-six states and the District of Columbia, with a professional staff in excess of 700." He added that hundreds of Catholic organizations are providing volunteers who contribute numberless hours of work at USO-NCCS operated clubs.

USO, composed of six private welfare agencies, was organized to supply spiritual, recreational, social and educational services to those in the armed forces and in crowded war production communities. The six member agencies are The Young Men's Christian Associations, National Catholic Community Service, The Salvation Army, Young Women's Christian Associations, National Jewish Welfare Board, and National Travelers Aid Association.

One Less Tramp in Our Town

Esther Curless found a tramp asleep in the hammock in her apple orchard, and she didn't hesitate a minute. She grabs a rolling pin—and the last they saw of him, the tramp was making dust tracks to the state line.

"It ain't only that I don't like laziness," says Esther, "I specially like it in wartime. It's that that particular tramp is Ned's hammock—and Ned's fightin' for it overseas!"

Then she shows us Ned's last letter where he says: "I keep dreaming of my hammock in the orchard, with Rags lying underneath, and a cool glass of beer beside me."

A soldier's picture of home! The little friendly pleasures that he misses so! From where I sit, Esther's mighty right in wanting to defend those "little things" from all intruders. They're among the things our men look forward to returning to—the things we want to keep intact for them.
